Chamber Members Enjoy Business Expo & Technology Today Business After Hours at Indian River State College

The Stuart/Martin County Chamber's annual Business Expo & Technology Today was a huge success thanks to all of the generous sponsors, exhibitors and restaurants. More than 300 people attended the event at Indian River State College, which featured a wide variety of local businesses showcasing the latest and greatest in products and services, as well as educational seminars. The restaurants providing complimentary hors d'oeuvres were Anthony's Coal Fired Pizza, Benihana, Castaways Gastropub, Charlie's Bar & Grill, The Florida Fresh Market & Café and Pusateri's Chicago Pizza. Representing the sponsor businesses were (front row from left) Michael Vega and Rui Pereira, Tax Liability Consultants; Richard Vaaler, Jr., Vaaler Commercial Real Estate; Bryan Gardner, Level 4 Telcom; Bernadette Serafin, Indian River State College. (back row from left) Nancy Vaaler Wyatt, Vaaler Commercial Real Estate; Tony Barletta, Brightway Insurance-Barletta Agency; Emmelis Keaney, Ameritas Investment Corp.; Jeff Leslie, ITS Fiber, LLC; Eric Kiehn, C&W Technologies.
