Chamber Members Enjoy 28th Annual Holiday Trade Show!

Stuart/Martin County Chamber members and friends enjoyed an evening filled with shopping, networking, eating and laughing. The 28th Annual Holiday Trade Show and Business After Hours, which took place on November 20th at The Kane Center, was a sold out event. Vendors displayed products and services to more than 300 guests, just in time for the holiday season.

Special thanks to sponsors: Amicus, Humana, Owen Insurance Group, Vitas Healthcare, FPL, Growth Squad, Hypower Inc., Lesser, Lesser, Landy & Smith PLLC, Recovery Insurance Adjusters, Skin Serenity Spa, CBS 12 News, Coast 101.3, Crary Buchanan and WQCS-NPR for the Treasure Coast. The restaurants providing the delicious appetizers and drinks were: Berry Fresh Café, Carrabba's Italian Grill, Jon Smith Subs, Ocean Republic Brewing, The Kane Center and The Twisted Tuna.

Chamber members gathered at the Chamber office on November 5th to officially kick off the annual Operation Thank You, where they spent the week visiting fellow members, thanking them for their continued support with special goodies and the new Welcome Guide & Business Directory. Members enjoyed a delicious breakfast provided by Berry Fresh Café before they set off on their missions. Special thanks to Photographics and Fully Promoted Jupiter and Stuart for sponsoring the beautiful canvas bags.

As sponsor of the Chamber's November Luncheon at The Yacht & Country Club, Treatment Management Co., presented an educational and alarming expose' on the local opioid crisis. Representing the Opioid Task Force, shown with Chamber President/CEO Joe Catrambone (left) and Chairman Kelly Bond-Pelletier, Just Gold Jewelers (right) are Francine Costello, Deborah Dreher and Ray Velazquez.
