Holiday Trade Show an Overwhelming Success!

On November 18th the Pittenger Center at St. Mary's Episcopal Church was overflowing with festive and creative vendors, welcoming visitors to the Stuart/Martin County Chamber's Holiday Trade Show and Business After Hours. From skin care to financial planning, medical centers to selfie booths, there was a little bit of everything for everyone. Not to mention all the delicious food and desserts! Special thanks to Skin Serenity Spa and all other sponsors, restaurants and Chamber vendors who made the event a huge success!

The Stuart/Martin County Chamber's Operation Thank You Kick-Off Breakfast was a great success, thanks to the sponsorship of MIDFLORIDA Credit Union and Berry Fresh Café. These wonderful volunteers are ready to visit and thank fellow members for supporting the local economy, with a bag filled with goodies and the new 2022 Welcome Guide & Business Directory. The Welcome Guides are also available at the Chamber office for businesses interested in distributing the books at their location.

Martin County Property Appraiser Jenny Field (right), shown with Clerk of the Circuit Court Carolyn Timmann, provided an overview of the property tax structure at the Chamber's November Networking Luncheon, sponsored by Blue-line 360 Inc. at The Twisted Tuna.
