Holiday Trade Show a Huge Success!

On November 18th the Pittenger Center at St. Mary's Episcopal Church was overflowing with festive and creative vendors, welcoming visitors to the Chamber's Holiday Trade Show and Business After Hours. From skin care to financial planning, medical centers to selfie booths, there was a little bit of everything for everyone. Special thanks to Skin Serenity Spa and all other sponsors, restaurants and Chamber vendors who made the event a huge success!

The Chamber's Operation Thank You Kick-Off Breakfast was a great success, thanks to the sponsorship of MIDFLORIDA Credit Union and Berry Fresh Café. These wonderful volunteers are ready to visit and thank fellow members for supporting the local economy, with a bag filled with goodies and the new 2022 Welcome Guide & Business Directory. The Welcome Guides are also available at the Chamber office for businesses interested in distributing the books at their location.

Martin County Property Appraiser Jenny Field (right), shown with Clerk of the Circuit Court Carolyn Timmann, provided an overview of the property tax structure at the Chamber's November Networking Luncheon, sponsored by Blueline 360 Inc. at The Twisted Tuna.

Chamber Members Celebrate Cindy LaConte's Retirement

November 10th was a bittersweet evening filled with laughter and tears, as Chamber members, staff, friends and family gathered at Martin Downs Golf Club to celebrate the retirement of Vice President of Operations Cindy LaConte, after 30 years of service to the Chamber. Cindy will continue to run the LEADERShip Martin County program, which is currently in its 31st year. We wish Cindy all the best of luck, as she assists her husband Patrick in his successful business.

Wishing You and Yours a Healthy & Happy Holiday Season!
