Operation Thank You Kick-Off A Success!

Despite the threat of Hurricane Nicole looming just off the coast, more than fifty dedicated Stuart/Martin County Chamber members turned out early November 8th for the Operation Thank You Kick Off Breakfast. The event was sponsored by Ace Hardware Hobe Sound and MidFlorida Credit Union, with a continental breakfast provided by Berry Fresh Cafe'. The volunteers will spend the following two weeks delivering bags filled with goodies, along with the 2023 Welcome Guide & Business Directory, to fellow Chamber members. The Welcome Guides are available at the Chamber office for visitors, new residents and businesses. They can also be picked up at more than 300 locations throughout Martin County.

Steve Strowbridge, Florida Computer Care (center) presented important tips for protecting your computer and avoiding cyber identity theft, as the community speaker at the Stuart/Martin County Chamber's November Business At Lunch, sponsored by Waste Management at The Twisted Tuna. Shown with Steve are Chamber Chairwoman and Trustee Lisa Satur, SouthState and Chamber President/CEO Joe Catrambone.

Let's get back to work! The October 14th Rally For Business Breakfast, organized by the Stuart/Martin County Chamber and hosted by Hog Technologies, focused on supporting small business, the American workforce and eliminating governmental intrusion. With the support of local, state and federal representatives, the Job Creators Network presented their Great Opportunity Project, which travels around the country promoting small business. Shown (from left) are Daniel DiMartino, Job Creators Network; Stuart Mayor Troy McDonald; Martin County Commissioner Stacey Hetherington; Elaine Parker, Job Creators Network; U.S. Congressman Brian Mast; Chamber Trustee James Crocker, Hog Technologies; Florida Representative Toby Overdorf; Florida Senator Gayle Harrell; Chamber President/CEO Joe Catrambone; former Florida Representative MaryLynn Magar, HCI/Heart Care Imaging and Martin County Commissioner Ed Ciampi.
