Chamber members celebrated the Grand Opening of The Red Grill II Mexican Restaurant, located at 715 N.W. Federal Highway, Stuart, during the January Business After Hours. With their original restaurant location in New York, Marco Dominquez (right) and his partner brought their authentic Mexican cuisine to Stuart with this location, and a second location at 2875 S.E. Ocean Boulevard.

As sponsor of the Chamber's January Business At Lunch at Bonefish Grill, US Liberty LLC explained the various products their company provides to the medical, child care, beauty and restaurant industries. The community speaker, Jessica Warren, represented the Martin County School District as she discussed the new high school intern program. Shown (from left) are Chamber President/CEO Joe Catrambone; Rome Boerner, Rebekah and Firas Jarrar and Amber Roberts, US Liberty LLC and Chamber Chairwoman/Trustee Lisa Satur, South State.
