The Chamber's May 2016 Business After Hours at the Kane Center featured a live auction presented by board member and auctioneer Elliot Paul. The "Everything Under the Sun" auction items included vacations, jewelry, dining, sports, flying experience, gator hunting, romance packages and much more. Special thanks to Hill, Barth & King for sponsoring the event. Shown from left are: Elliot Paul, Elliot Paul & Co.; Chamber President/CEO Joe Catrambone; Chair Elect Janice Norman, Century 21 IRP Realty/Norman Page Team. Representing Hill, Barth & King are John Fedorek, Steve Swindler, Greg Nuttall, Rich Mishock, Kyle Offringa, Eric Swierzinski, Mark Roberts and Chris Gall. For more event photos visit our Photo Gallery at www.stuartmartinchamber.org.

The Chamber recognized Mental Illness Awareness Month at the May 2016 Networking Luncheon held at The Twisted Tuna. Art Ciasca, CEO of Suncoast Mental Health Center, sponsors of the event, discussed the crippling disease and treatments available to the sufferers. Shown (from left) are Suncoast volunteers Naureen and Sabrina Haider; Chamber President/CEO Joe Catrambone; Suncoast CEO Art Ciasca and Director of Outreach Deb Pizzimenti and Chamber Chairman Ryan Strom, Team Parks, Inc.

Chamber Chairman Ryan Strom, Team Parks, Inc. (right) presents Martin County High School student Kyle Annase with one of four college scholarships awarded by the Stuart/Martin County Chamber of Commerce during the school's Scholarship Night. The other three Chamber scholarship recipients were Rana Mardini, Clark Advanced Learning Center; Pedro Flores-Carrillo, Jensen Beach High School and Abbey Wendisch, South Fork High School. Congratulations!
