Virtual Morning Joe via Zoom

Thursday, March 18th
8:00-9:00 AM

The Chamber Conference Center is sponsored by T.C. Urgent Care

Despite the weather, a traffic accident and Ash Wednesday, fifty Chamber members braved the elements to enjoy the ambiance of Monarch Country Club, host and sponsor of the February Business After Hours. Members enjoyed the beautiful view of the golf course, while delighting in the hand served hors d'oeuvres and cocktails. Shown are (from left) Beth Robertson, Beth Olson and Lauralee Rexroad, Monarch Country Club and Chamber Chairman Jeff Sabin, Waste Management.

We had a great group at our February Virtual Morning Joe! The Morning Joe gives you an opportunity for casual networking with your fellow chamber members. Plus, the first half of the Morning Joe is broadcast live on WSTU's Morning Show, giving attendees some great radio exposure! Our next Morning Joe is scheduled for Thursday, March 18th from 8-9 am.

Chambers Unite For Council Business After Hours

Join us on Wednesday, March 24th from 5:30-7pm for a Council of Chambers Business After Hours at Banyan Creek Golf Club in Palm City! The Council of Chambers consists of all five Chambers of Commerce in Martin County, including Hobe Sound, Indiantown, Jensen Beach, Stuart/Martin County and Palm City Chambers. Attending Council of Chambers events provide additional benefits by giving you the opportunity to network with members of other Chambers you might not usually interact with.

The Council of Chambers BAH is open to members of any participating chamber. Tickets are $10 and registration is required. Please register at www.stuartmartinchamber.org.

The Council BAH will not replace the regular Business After Hours, which will take place on March 17th at Liberty Impact Windows & Doors. Be sure to wear your green if you don't want to be pinched! Tickets are also $10, with registration required at www.stuartmartinchamber.org.
