The Stuart/Martin County and Indiantown Chambers of Commerce came together on a beautiful February evening to present a joint Business After Hours, hosted by The Outpost Bar & Grille at Indianwood Country Club. Special thanks to ITS Fiber, LLC, Indiantown Marina and Indiantown Realty for co-sponsoring the event. Shown (from left) are Marsha Powers, Martin County School Board; David Powers, Indiantown Realty; Indiantown Chamber Executive Director Kelly Catania; Stuart/Martin County Chamber President/CEO Joe Catrambone; Scott Watson, Indiantown Marina; Denise Lechner and Mike Gonzalez, ITS Fiber, LLC; Kevin Powers, Indiantown Realty and Garfield Whyte, The Outpost Bar & Grille.

Chamber President/CEO Joe Catrambone and Chairman Kelly Bond-Pelletier, Just Gold Jewelers present Maureen Vaillancourt, Re/Max of Stuart with the Ambassador of the Month award at the February Networking Luncheon, sponsored by Americann Wellness at Stuart Corinthian Yacht Club. Maureen was also a past Ambassador Co-Chair and has served on the committee since 2008, selling 50/50 raffle tickets and visiting members throughout the year.

As sponsor of the Chamber's February Networking Luncheon, held at Stuart Corinthian Yacht Club, Sherry and Alex Piasecki, Americann Wellness, presented research regarding the important role that medical marijuana plays in pain relief and other medical issues. Chamber President/CEO Joe Catrambone and Chairman Kelly Bond-Pelletier, Just Gold Jewelers thank Sherry and Alex for their presentation and sponsorship.
