Health & Wellness Show a Great Success!

The Kane Center was filled with businesses promoting a healthy lifestyle at the Chamber's Health & Wealth Show and Business After Hours, held March 30th at The Kane Center. Special thanks to the following sponsors for their participation: Cleveland Clinic Martin Health, Loving Chiropractic, Owen Insurance Group, MUV, R.V. Johnson Insurance, Skin Serenity Spa and Treasure Coast Urgent Care. Visitors enjoyed the delightful treats provided by Boys & Girls Club, Carrabba's Italian Grill, Don't Panic, It's Organic, Mr. Jalapeno, The Kane Center and Tropical Nektar Juice Co.

Chamber members were captivated by the moving testimonial of drive and determination by former professional baseball player Rick Ankiel, at the April Networking Luncheon, sponsored by Brightway Insurance/V. Zanfini Family Agency and T.C. Insurance Partners. Brightway partner and Past Chamber Chairman Tony Barletta also presented to members the benefits of working with his company for their insurance needs, as they enjoyed a delightful lunch at Mariner Sands Country Club. Shown (from left) are Chamber President/CEO Joe Catrambone; Adam and Elizabeth Blake, T.C. Insurance Partners; Haylee Boorman and Kim Zanfini, Brightway Insurance/V. Zanfini Family Agency; Rick Ankiel, All Dry of the Treasure Coast; Tony Barletta, T.C. Insurance Partners; Corey Saban, All Dry of the Treasure Coast and Chamber Chairman Kelly Johnson, R.V. Johnson Insurance.

Special thanks to the Business Development Board for sponsoring the Chamber's special Business @ Breakfast panel discussion, held on April 5th at Hutchinson Island Marriott Beach Resort. The board presented a forum of local leaders discussing the future of work and learning in Martin County. Shown (from left) are Chamber President/CEO Joe Catrambone; Lynn Smith, Jaymie Sardo, Executive Director Joan Goodrich, Business Development Board; and Chamber Chairman and Trustee Kelly Johnson, R.V. Johnson Insurance.
