Stuart/Martin County Chamber members were delighted to network at the September Business After Hours, hosted and sponsored by Carrabba's Italian Grill. Chamber Chairman Kelly Bond-Pelletier, Just Gold Jewelers, celebrated her last Business After Hours as Chairman, as she and Chamber President/CEO Joe Catrambone, thanked Carrabba's Proprietor Brian Torello for the expansive and delicious spread he provided. Torello and his staff were also recognized for all of the effort they have put into helping Martin County residents and organizations get through the pandemic.

Special thanks to Chamber Trustee and Director Candace Lopes, owner of Skin Serenity Spa, for sponsoring the Chamber's September 9th Business @ Breakfast, held at Hutchinson Island Marriott Beach Resort & Marina. Candace generously donated her speaking time to Kerry Caruso and Colleen Schramm of Tootsies Shoes, Pedicures & More, to promote their new ownership of the downtown boutique. Representing Skin Serenity Spa, shown with Chamber President/CEO Joe Catrambone, were (from left) Sabrina Lamparter, Mary Weeks, Candace Lopes, Amy Lahti, Alexis Hayden and Ava Clarke.
