Chamber members were delighted to network at the September Business After Hours, hosted and sponsored by Carrabba's Italian Grill. Chamber Chairman Kelly Bond-Pelletier, Just Gold Jewelers, celebrated her last Business After Hours as Chairman, as she and Chamber President/CEO Joe Catrambone, thanked Carrabba's Proprietor Brian Torello for the expansive and delicious spread he provided. Torello and his staff were also recognized for all of the effort they have put into helping Martin County residents and organizations get through the pandemic.

Special thanks to Chamber Trustee and Director Candace Lopes, owner of Skin Serenity Spa, for sponsoring the Chamber's September 9th Business @ Breakfast, held at Hutchinson Island Marriott Beach Resort & Marina. Candace generously donated her speaking time to Kerry Caruso and Colleen Schramm of Tootsies Shoes, Pedicures & More, to promote their new ownership of the downtown boutique. Representing Skin Serenity Spa, shown with Chamber President/CEO Joe Catrambone, were (from left) Sabrina Lamparter, Mary Weeks, Candace Lopes, Amy Lahti, Alexis Hayden and Ava Clarke.

LEADERship Martin County

LEADERship Graduation was like none other this year. The earliest graduation I remember was Class 4. My husband Patrick, graduated that year. As I started to write this, I really tried to think how his graduation was. I could not remember his graduation, so I called him to ask him if he remembered. I still tried to think where it was, and then I remembered I had just had our son Richard in March of 1994, so I really don't remember much from March through May. I graduated in 1997, class 7, we had a great capstone day and then that evening had a great social hour, dinner and presentation.

Graduations have changed throughout the 30 years, the stable theme has been celebrating the class and their journey through the program. We did that this year in a Zoom setting in three sessions. Due to Covid, we had to follow the CDC rules and regulations. We had the class divided into three groups. They arrived, social distancing and we reminisced. Joe Catrambone, Tim Kinane and I addressed the class, while Cindy Groover, Class 30 Rep, also got to address each session. We also took time to thank the Planning Committee and this year's Co-Chairs, Sharon Kinane and Doreen Barnes. We took individual photos and a class photo.

The past six months have been quite a journey for us all, an unexpected addition to Class 30's LEADERship program. We congratulate and celebrate all they have done and all they will do as LEADERship Martin County Alumni. We look forward to seeing them and everyone else soon at an upcoming Alumni Social. Please welcome class 30, "#30Strong."
