Virtual Breakfast A Success!

Rising early on August 18th, thirty Chamber members were treated via Zoom to an informative presentation by Deputy County Administrator Don Donaldson, who gave an overview and update on the Roosevelt Bridge. Other transportation issues discussed were S.R. 714 and Veterans Memorial Bridge. The Virtual Breakfasts have been an effective method of networking during this time of social distancing.

Chamber Offers Program to Support Local Businesses - Get Out & Shop!

For the month of October, participate in Shop Martin! During Shop Martin, we encourage people to patron participating businesses and spend at least $25 each time they visit. Customers will then submit their receipt to the Chamber to be entered into drawings that will be held weekly and one grand prize drawing.

Chamber member businesses can participate for free, they just need to provide a prize or gift card valued at $25 or more.

Businesses that are not chamber members can participate for a $25 entry fee in addition to the prize or gift card. The prizes donated by participating businesses will be used for the weekly and grand prize drawings.

For more information or to learn how you can participate, contact Caitlin Hartley at caitlinh@stuartmartinchamber.org or (772) 287-1088 x 112.

Chamber Trustee and Board member Dr. Brian Moriarty, Loving Chiropractic of Stuart proudly sponsored the August 12th Networking Breakfast at Hutchinson Shores Resort & Spa. Dr. Moriarty taught Chamber members how to improve their immune systems, by increasing their intake of natural vitamin D (the sun) and water, and by keeping their spine in-line by visiting their chiropractor regularly. Shown are (from left) Chamber President/CEO Joe Catrambone; Chamber Chairman Kelly Bond-Pelletier, Just Gold Jewelers; Cathleen Owen, Dr. Moriarty and Dr. Spencer, Loving Chiropractic.

As the featured speaker at the Chamber's August Networking Breakfast, Assistant County Administrator George Stokus presented the new Business Referral Program being offered to Martin County businesses for COVID relief. Mr. Stokus was joined by his wife Mary and mother Frayda Morris at Hutchinson Shores Resort & Spa.
