Chamber Recognizes Foundation Impacts at Friendsgiving Luncheon

Stuart/Martin County Chamber members celebrated the Friendsgiving Luncheon on December 11th by paying tribute to the Martin Chamber Foundation programs that impact workforce development, education and entrepreneurship. Attendees were treated to testimonials from CareerConnect Martin participants and Joseph A. Catrambone Scholarship recipients. To raise funds, attendees were able to bid on one-of-a-kind silent auction items. Special thanks to Back In Action, Access 365 Urgent Care and the Martin Chamber Foundation for sponsoring the sold-out event at Marriott Hutchinson Island Beach Resort. Shown are (l-r) Chamber Chairman/Trustee Dr. Brian Moriarty, Loving Chiropractic of Stuart; Dr. Rob McLaughlin, Access 365 Urgent Care and Back In Action; Chamber COO/VP Angela Hoffman and President/CEO Joe Catrambone.

CareerConnect Martin, a vital Martin Chamber Foundation program, has made tremendous progress since its inception in 2022, primarily due to the participation of the local business community. During the December 11th Friendsgiving Luncheon at Marriott Hutchinson Island Beach Resort, some of the businesses were honored for their successful involvement in the program. Shown are (front row l-r) Jim Dragseth, Shearwater Marine FL, Inc.; Megan Fenton, Sunshine Land Design; Chamber Trustee/Director Gary Guttveg, DreamWorks Companies; Stephanie Miele and Brian Carney, International Training; Chamber Director Jennifer Richards, All Area Roofing & Construction, Inc.; Laura Haase, Children's Services Council. (Back l-r) Chuchi Rivero, Old Havana Café; Maria Ehman, Ehman Electrical Contractors LLC; Pete Morello, The UPS Store; CareerConnect Director Gina Masters; Chamber Chairman/Trustee Dr. Brian Moriarty, Loving Chiropractic of Stuart and Meghan Shirey, Boys & Girls Clubs of Martin County.

LEADERShip Martin County Presents Economics Day to Class 35

On December 4th, Class 35 hit the ground running for an Economics Day that was nothing short of a resounding success! The day offered an incredible "backstage pass" to the engines driving our local economy, featuring fascinating tours of our local airport, the master craftsmanship at Willis Custom Yachts, and the global operations of International Training SDI. The group gained invaluable regional insights through a powerhouse presentation by Bill Fruth of Policom, which perfectly complemented the deeply personal and ever-memorable "WHY" exercise led by Tim Kinane. This deep dive into purpose and perspective left the class feeling inspired and more connected than ever.
