Stuart/Martin County Chamber members enjoyed a cool January evening networking under the stars during the Business After Hours, hosted and sponsored by Plantation Storage of Stuart. Members learned about the importance of keyless, remote entry into this state-of-the-art storage facility. Shown are (l-r) Past Chamber Chairman Dan Hulen, Worldpay; Charles Franklin and Kimberly Brock, Plantation Storage of Stuart.

As sponsor of the Stuart/Martin County Chamber's January Business at Lunch at Two Georges Dockside Grill, Taryn Kryzda, Village of Indiantown Manager discussed all of the proposed developments and improvements coming soon to her Western Martin County community. Shown with Mrs. Kryzda (2nd from left) are Chamber Chairman/Trustee Dr. Brian Moriarty, Loving Chiropractic of Stuart; Chamber President/CEO Joe Catrambone and Skylar Gorman, Sky is the Limit.

LEADERShip Martin County Copes Day was a raging success! Class 35 bonded on an all-new level as they navigated the challenges of the low and high rope courses. Beyond the physical feats, Tim Kinane delivered an incredible leadership segment focused on the power of gratitude, grounding the team's growth in a shared sense of appreciation. A huge thank you to Alec Connely and the hospitable Scout Camp crew and our incredible volunteers: Stacy Little, Skylar Gorman, Josh Russell and Cindy Groover.
