As sponsor of the Stuart/Martin County Chamber's April Business at Lunch at Marriott Hutchinson Island Beach Resort, Engel & Volkers Stuart/The GPS Group discussed their business philosophy, experience and teamwork guiding prospective residents to their forever homes. Chamber Chairman/Trustee Dr. Brian Moriarty, Loving Chiropractic of Stuart (left) thanked Michael Ponte, Stacy Little and John Gonzalez for their sponsorship.

The Stuart/Martin County Chamber gave Sheriff John Budensiek (2nd from left) a standing ovation as he presented the important topic of mental health awareness at the April Business at Lunch, sponsored by Engel & Volkers Stuart/The GPS Group at Marriott Hutchinson Island Beach Resort. Shown with the Sheriff are (l-r) Chamber Chairman/Trustee Dr. Brian Moriarty, Loving Chiropractic of Stuart; Major Ruben Romero and Chamber President/CEO Joe Catrambone.

Stuart/Martin County Chamber Director/Trustee Zach Gazza, Hobe Sound Farms and his staff provided a good 'ole down home welcome to more than 100 Chamber members to the April Business After Hours he hosted and sponsored on the farm. Members enjoyed petting baby goats, feeding the ducks, listening to music by Lisa Michaels, tasting the homegrown beef sliders and more. Representing Hobe Sound Farms, with Chamber Chairman Dr. Brian Moriarty, Loving Chiropractic of Stuart (left) were Emilie Cooper, Zoe Farren, Zach Gazza, Whitney O'Brien and Bonnie Avello.

LEADERShip Class 35, shown at 10th Street Community Center, spent their Health & Human Services Day on April 2nd visiting a number of local community resources and healthcare organizations. The committee worked tirelessly to provide a well-rounded experience for Class 35, exploring all aspects of physical and mental health from neonatal care to senior services. Special thanks to committee members Samantha Suffich, Cindy Groover, Jill Ball, Sharon and Tim Kinane.
